Air-guitar madness at BCP 2009!

kidzklub's Big Christmas Party 2009 was a load of fun for kids and adults alike.

Old favorites from BCP 2008 were mixed with new fun, including a mass air-guitar accompaniment to the rock version of Hark The Herald Angels Sing.

Our Strictly Come Wrapping wrap-an-adult game made a welcome return and saw 4 'willing volunteers' enjoying their moment of fame (more pics overleaf and even more on our website).

BCP concluded an exciting term in which kidzklub regulars enjoyed monthly installments in the story of Jonah (that's the guy who was eaten by the fish) explained through songs, games, video clips and lots of silliness.

gathered a fantastic team, including a core team from communitychurch and Oasis Church, with a lot of support from members of other churches. The challenge we've set ourselves for 2010 is to grow kidzklub so that more families can enjoy the experience."

Anthony Taylor, leader of Oasis Church and kidzklub frontman comments, "Being a Primary teacher I really enjoy the opportunity to work with children, helping them understand the Bible story and what it means. Finding fresh and relevant ways to do that keeps us on our toes!"

Co-frontman Ruth O'Connell says, "I really enjoy seeing the children have such a good time! We plan to keep talking with parents and kids to find out what they like about kidzklub!"

This Spring, alongside our regular helpers, kidzklub is also working with several young helpers, two of which are working for their DoFe community service. ■

Lighthouse 2010

Lighthouse Thame is relocating to Lord Williams Upper School grounds. Changes with the Thame Show date made a move necessary, and the team have been working hard with the School and Leisure Centre managements to secure the new site. Lighthouse will still contain all the usual mix of fun, games, silliness and – most importantly – gunge!
